VOL. 13 - NEWSLETTER N° 119
MARCH 2017

NEW ON INSTAGRAM

The Sectorial Committee now has an Instagram account! Subscribe to follow us and use the hashtag #csmoim when you want to identify us. The Committee will publish mainly photos but may also post short videos (InstaStory: 10-second videos available 24 hours). This social media application is very popular with young people.

Instagram is a free social networking platform that allows subscribers to post photos, with a description. It uses hashtags (pound key + key word) to identify photos, which can then be found by searching the hashtag.

2017 JOB FAIR

The Sectorial Committee will be on hand at the Foire de l'emploi job fair on March 31 and April 1 at the Centre de foires d'Expo-Cité in Québec City. We will have a stand to inform visitors about our mission and about marine-sector trades.

MARINE PERSONNEL REGULATIONS WORKSHOP

Again this year, the Marine Personnel Regulations workshop, organized by the Sectorial Committee and held on February 22 in Québec City, was a rousing success. More than 65 people participated in this activity, which was offered free of charge to all members of the Québec maritime community.

For this 8th edition, we had the opportunity to work with Denis Bélanger and Annie Larouche of Transport Canada, the workshop's main presenters. This year, a component on occupational health and safety in the marine industry was added in collaboration with Line Larouche of Transport Canada. Further conferences were given by Robert Fecteau of Transport Canada and Éric Frenette of the Centre de formation aux mesures d'urgence (CFMU-IMQ) emergency measures training centre.

7TH IMQ INTERNSHIP FAIR

The Institut maritime du Québec held its 7th internship fair on February 1-2, 2017. The Sectorial Committee was on hand to talk to the students about its mission and the tools available to them.

The Committee also ran a contest to attract people to its stand. Participants had to take a "selfie" at the Committee's stand and post it on Instagram with the hashtag #csmoim and the handle @csmoim. A dozen students entered and winners David Nugent-Létourneau and Hanouka Brochu received a $50 gift certificate at the restaurant Shaker.
