

MARITIME LABOUR CONVENTION (MLC, 2006)
TRAINING COURSE

November 25-26, 2013—Montreal

Institut maritime du Québec
Cégep de Rimouski

MARITIME LABOUR CONVENTION, 2006 (MLC)

Objective

This 2-Day MLC training course will provide the participant with an overview of the forth coming implementation of the International Labor Organization (ILO) Maritime Labour Convention, 2006 (MLC).

Description

This training course is specially designed to demonstrate the qualifications of participants in the relevant aspects of MLC-2006, the ability to maintain and update expertise and the necessary knowledge of the requirements of MLC-2006 as well as applicable national laws, regulations and other relevant instruments.

Who should attend?

This course is of value to everyone who's duties involve matters of safety, operations of ships as well as other involved in the shipping industry. Attendance should be:

- ⇒ Surveyors or Auditors experienced in maritime inspections, surveys or audits;
- ⇒ Flag State or Port State Control Inspectors;
- ⇒ Independent Surveyors, Maritime Lawyers, Maritime Advisors;
- ⇒ Representatives of seafarers and ship-owners organizations; ship agent and,
- ⇒ Ship Owners, Ship Operators, Masters, Chief Engineers, Companies responsible for the Safety Management Systems, Crew & Ship Agencies and other persons.

Topics Covered

This 2-Day MLC training course will cover the following items and will put more emphasis on the practical part (Ship inspection) based on Title 5 "Compliance and Enforcement":

Introduction & Background to the MLC, 2006 and the Maritime Context

- Title 1: Minimum Requirements for Seafarers to work on a ship
- Title 2: Conditions of Employment
- Title 3: Accommodation, recreational facilities, food and catering
- Title 4: Health protection, medical care, welfare and social security
- Title 5 of the MLC, 2006, emphasis on :
 - ⇒ Regulation 5.1 – Flag State Responsibilities
 - ⇒ Regulation 5.1.2 – Authorization of Recognized Organization (RO)
 - ⇒ Regulation 5.1.3 – Maritime Labour Certificate (MLC) and Declaration of Maritime Labour Compliance (DMLC – Part I & Part II)
 - ⇒ Regulation 5.1.4 – Inspection and Enforcement
 - ⇒ Inspection & Certification requirements

| | | |
|--------------------------------|---|---|
| Certification | Participants will receive a certificate after successfully completion of individual evaluations, signed by a Certified Trainer. | |
| Methods | PowerPoint presentation, videos, cases studies, working group. | |
| Pre-Requisite | Basic Maritime Knowledge | |
| Language | English | |
| Duration | 2 days | |
| Costs & Payment | $ 895.00 / participant (check or credit card) | |
| Further Recommendations | Laptop, tablets. (USB will be provided) | |
| Location | Hyatt Regency Montreal Room Imagination, 6 th floor | |
| Date | 25 ^h - 26 th November 2013 | |
| Contact Information | CIBS Administration admin@cibsmarine.org Tel.:(613) 790-7260 | Institut maritime du Québec nparent@imq.qc.ca Tel. : (418) 835-1621, ext. 22 |

To Register :

<http://www.imq.qc.ca/formation-continue/conferences-et-seminaires.php>

Canadian International Bureau of Shipping

Biography - Said Nassif

Mr. Said Nassif, Managing Director for Canadian International Bureau of Shipping (CIBS), holds a Bachelor's degree in Maritime Transportation and Master of Business Administration degree with major in Logistics and Transportation from University of Quebec in Montreal. He holds a Canadian Chief Marine Engineer and possessing certifications in freight forwarding, and has received the nomination as Professional Freight Forwarding Specialist (CIFFA), including agency and ship brokering (ASBA) and is certified as an anti-terrorism specialist, he has been also nominated as a Green Marine verifier.

Upon completion of 14 years in the sea career as Chief Engineer, he joined the Canadian government as a marine surveyor, rose through the ranks and held several management positions including Manager Occupational Health and Safety to Operations Director Marine Safety and Security at Transport Canada where he was responsible for the promotion and enforcement of policies, standards and regulations to improve security in the maritime sector.

As a renowned trainer he has delivered many training courses for many international bodies, such as India Ocean MOU's, Italian Coast Guard, International Maritime Academy in Italy, and many more for the maritime industries in Dubai, Lebanon, Egypt, Miami USA, etc.(ISM, ISPS, PSC, ISO 9001).

In addition and as a member of the Canadian delegation, Mr. Nassif attend and participated in many occasion at the International Labor Organization in Geneva to review the new Maritime Labor Convention 2006.