

Oceanex is continuously searching for dynamic and certified candidates for our positions on board of our ships.

We are proud to offer our Fleet employees a positive work environment, competitive salaries, excellent benefits, and a schedule of 28 days on board followed by 28 days paid at home.

Oceanex's main capital assets are its three ships, terminal equipment, and a fleet of approximately 2,500 containers plus highway trailers. The three ice-class vessels that Oceanex owns and operates, are

- the Oceanex Avalon: Sailing between Montreal and St. John's, this ship is a 1,004 TEU Lo / Lo vessel commissioned in 2005 and was specially designed with moveable cell guides to convert 40' cells to 53' cells in order to accommodate anticipated future growth in 53' containers.
- the Oceanex Connaigra: Sailing between Montreal and St. John's, this ship is a 940 TEU Ro / Ro vessel commissioned in 2013 that carries containers, trailers, and motor vehicles.
- the Oceanex Sanderling: Sailing between Halifax and St. John's, this ship is a 1,125 TEU Ro / Ro vessel that carries containers, trailers, and motor vehicles.

The vessels are operated under ships' continuous survey and class procedures and full dry-docking programs, generally every five years.
