PARTICIPATION IN PORT OF QUEBEC'S FAMILY FESTIVAL

THE TEAM IS GROWING!

The Sectorial Committee is pleased to expand its team to include Hélène Gaucher, our new Project Manager for Skills Development and Special Projects!

Welcome aboard, Hélène!

The Sectorial Committee team was on hand at the Port of Québec's family-friendly maritime festival (September 1) with matching games designed to introduce participants to maritime trades/occupations and the types of ships navigating the St. Lawrence.

Thanks to all who played along with us!

QUEBEC MARINE DAY

The 22nd edition of Québec Marine Day, which is recognized by the Québec government, will run on October 25.

In collaboration with the Institut maritime du Québec and SODES, an introduction to the maritime sector will be offered to elementary and secondary school students.

WORKING GROUPS

Our working groups have been very busy over the summer, taking part in discussions on a range of industry issues and, more concretely, developing projects of key importance to the industry that are soon to be tabled for approval.

We would like to thank all of our partners for their very active participation and availability!

MARITIME EMPLOYMENT WEEK

MEW is back this year, following Québec Marine Day (October 25), with diversified content targeting little-known maritime-sector jobs.

Five articles will be written for MEW and shared on our social networks, portraying industry workers with exciting trades/occupations. Stay tuned and feel free to share these articles to help heighten awareness of maritime-sector jobs!

CFMU WINTER 2022-2023 TRAINING SESSION TIMETABLE

We are pleased to inform you that the Institut maritime du Québec's Centre de formation aux mesures d'urgence (CFMU) winter 2022-2023 training session timetable will soon be available on the CFMU website. To consult it, click here.

TRANSPORTATION AND LOGISTICS CAREER DAY

The Sectorial Committee team will be on hand at CargoM Career Day 2022 on November 2. This 7th edition will run at the original venue: the Port of Montreal's Grand Quay.

REGIONAL TOUR

Our Training Coordinator is preparing for her annual regional tour, which, this year, will take place virtually and target the North Shore region. Susan will tour our members, potential members and local Services Québec centres to tell them about our services.

Si vous voulez avoir plus d'information à ce sujet, veuillez la contacter directement au stalkner@csmoim.qc.ca

SERVICES QUÉBEC REGULATORY TRAINING FUNDING

Annual Services Québec funding is still available for maritime companies who completed the annual survey last February.

If you were granted funding and have not yet used the amounts available earmarked for your company, you have until November 11 to do so.

After that, unused funding will be made available to all Québec maritime companies.

MINISTÈRE DES TRANSPORTS DU QUÉBEC (MTQ) FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE MEASURES

Just a quick reminder that the Ministère des Transports du Québec offers funding for the professional development of seafarers wishing to obtain initial or advanced Navigation or Mechanical Engineering certification. This funding covers 50% of training costs. Holders of certification issued in another country, who are in the process of converting their papers to obtain Canadian certification, are also eligible for this financial assistance (certain eligibility criteria apply).

If you have questions or would like to have further information about the two types of financing available, please refer to our website at Financement maritime.

ACTIVITY FOR GUIDANCE COUNSELLORS FROM THE CHAUDIÈRE-APPALACHES AND CAPITALE NATIONALE REGIONS

The Sectorial Committee's guidance counsellors' day will take place on November 24, live on the Teams platform, and will spotlight maritime-sector career opportunities. The activity will include an overall presentation of the maritime sector and its jobs, given by various seasoned industry players.

If you are a guidance counsellor and work in the Chaudière-Appalaches or Capitale-Nationale region, you can register free of charge here.

GENERAL SHIPPING KNOWLEDGE TRAINING

General Shipping Knowledge training is back this fall. A training session is scheduled for November 30 in Montréal. Don't miss this opportunity to learn more about the maritime sector and acquire basic shipping-related knowledge.

Nicolas Parent, Senior Consultant with CPCS, will be the trainer. Two guest speakers, who are industry experts, will join him during the activity!

For more information and to register candidates for this training session, please follow this link.
